Uplifting, distinctive, memorable and inspiring, Doug's work has been enriching the lives of collectors for many years. He has built a formidable reputation over the last few years as the man behind 'the smile', one of the most iconic artworks of the 21st century. He was named in a BBC news broadcast as the most popular living artist in the UK, and his original paintings, sculpture and limited editions have become sought-after collectors' items. He has been the subject of numerous books and articles and has been featured on national TV on several occasions.
